

Mr. Ravi Mundada
Management Consultant
TiE Charter Member
NASSCOM Lead for IoT in Agriculture & Energy

Over 20 years of experience in business management, strategy, technology and enterprise architecture. Expert hand on managing the corporate business functions through its breadth, depth and size ranging from smallest unit of 200k USD upto 200M USD. Recipient of thought leadership award by Accenture and alumnus of BITS Pilani, Ravi has presented thought leadership papers in global forums (Tokyo & Sydney) on management maturity and CRM.

- Managed the CEO and CTO Functions effectively for small companies and start ups.
- Enterprise architect with over 20 years of experience spanning multiple technologies, industry domain and business functions.
- Veteran Solution architect having handled complex and multi-million IT- solutions covering latest technologies and legacy IT stack. Managed more than 100 IT solutions covering all aspects for successful solution architecting – contracting, commercials, deal economics, people transfer, acquisition, transformation, technology replacement, vendor replacement, off shoring migration and others.
- Turned around some complex and litigated projects within a short span of time requiring a focused attention to the issue resolution and relationship building with clients.
- Managed the business initiatives & programs with team size over 400.
- Build the unique methodologies and approaches for IT delivery of large and complex programs. These process, tools and accelerators are then practiced by many projects to provide delivery excellence. Right from the knowledge transition phase to contract closure.